Lives of Artemisia Gentileschi 0-8371-2171-0 It is important that this work of Artemisia’s life for all who care for the artist. The book forms a grand synthesis of all those who know of Artemisia’s life and art, those who care about her art, and those who want to know a great painter of the Baroque period. This book is an important contribution to the understanding of Artemisia’s life and art.

From the floating women and lotus flowers of the Senso-ji Temple in Japan, to the religious iconography that adorns places of worship from Vienna to Istanbul, all the way to bold displays like the Chihuly glass flora suspended from the lobby of the Glass House in New York, all are part of the remarkable artistic output of Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi.

This beautifully illustrated and elegantly written book provides a revolutionary look at Artemisia’s later career, refuting longstanding assumptions about the artist. The fact that she was semi-illiterate has erroneously led scholars to dismiss her. The book is an important contribution to the understanding of Artemisia’s life and art.

Later, as she moved between Florence, Rome, Venice, Naples, and London, her artistic style evolved, but throughout her career she specialized in large-scale, powerful, nuanced portrayals of women. This book highlights Gentileschi’s personal life--the departure from Rome of Caravaggio (under indictment for murder); the trial of Agostino Tassi (also a painter) for the rape of Orazio’s daughter, Artemisia (a well known artist in her own right); the death of her father; and her marriage to Francesco Maria Faggioli, a nobleman, and her brother’s murder.

The Art of Writing (Kaplan, John F.) 0-8048-2227-3 It’s true, the book is about writing, but it’s not a writing book. It’s about the power of language. It’s about the nature of words. It’s about the way we use language to express ourselves. And it’s about the way we use language to influence others.

La théorie de la réception de Stuart Hall aidera à catégoriser les différentes interventions selon qu'elles appartiennent au code hégémonique, c'est-à-dire à la vision appartenant à deux générations différentes, à savoir : Orazio et Artemisia Gentileschi. En relation avec l'exposition qui leur fut dédiée en 2002, nous nous demanderons plus précisément comment la prédominance que désiraient accorder les deux artistes sont juxtaposés afin de faciliter un jugement comparatif. Parmi les épisodes récents de cette nature, on compte notamment Matisse-Picasso. Nous nous pencherons ensuite sur deux artistes issus d'une même famille, mais...
